FASHION FROWNS ON HIPS.

"In these days figure is of more account than style," said Miss Elizabeth A. C. White, high mogul of feminine finery, in demonstrating costumes at the dressmakers' convention in Masonic Temple, New York, on Saturday.

"And hips are the enemy of a good figure. I tell you the hips must go. You must learn to put your clothes on correctly. That is more important than having them cut in the latest style. A woman who has not the proper lines cannot be correctly gowned. It is the corset that makes or mars a woman's appearance."

Just then a young woman made her appearance in a long trailing creation, which Miss White explained was in the new shade of cinders of roses, the latest from Paris. All shades, she added, were to be subdued this season.

Exclamations over the beauty of form of the model brought from Miss White the declaration that it could be in large measure attained, even in a person with large hips.

"It's all in the corset," said Miss White. "Look at me! The Bon Ton that I brought abroad has given me the lines of slimness that you see, and I determined to tell the women of this country what a proper corset would do for them.

"Paris sets the styles for women and Paris has said the hips must go. We in the United States will not be slow in following suit."

SUES SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

The Southern Railway Company was made defendant in a suit for $10,000 damages, filed yesterday in the District Supreme Court of Washington by William M. Hanes. In the bill of complaint, drawn by Attorneys R. F. Downing and G. A. Berry, the plaintiff states that August 8 of this year he was a passenger on the train of the defendant company en route from that city to Marshall, Va., and that at the Manassas station the car in which he was seated gave a sudden jolt which caused the door of the car to slam with great violence, and that he was struck by the door and received serious injuries.

Its projectors plan to make it a representative southern monthly with the best southern authors only.

PREACHER AND GIRL GONE.

Elijah Geer, a Dunkard preacher of Quinque, Va., a married man with three small children, has disappeared, as has Miss Kinser, said to be 16 years old. From Charlottesville Geer wrote a letter of six pages to his wife, saying that she could take all his earthly belongings, that he never expected to see her again and would never return, as he had the girl and she was all that he desired in this world.

The girl also wrote to her father that their intention was to travel a long while and marry afterward.

Nothing has been heard from them since the letter was received, and friends say they tried to get to Canada.

Mormon preachers are known to have been in correspondence with him.

IN GOVERNMENT SERVICE.

Approximately one person in every 55 living in the United States is on the pay roll of the national government.

This seems, on first thought, a somewhat startling statement, but it must be considered that by far the largest number of persons on the payroll are not now in the actual service of the government.

Out of 1,623,518 persons who receive their emolument from the national treasury 1,017,000 are pensioners to whom is paid annually the sum of $163,000,000, or approximately $160 each.

The remainder, more than 600,000, are in the actual employment of the government, are scattered from one end of the country to the other, in the Philippines, Alaska, Porto Rico, Hawaii, Cuba and Panama, and, in the diplomatic service, even in foreign countries.

There are 28,947 of them in the District of Columbia alone.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 25, 1908

A CORRESPONDENT of one of the Baltimore republican newspapers writing from Richmond, alleges that the democratic majority in this state next November will be materially reduced. As viewed through his spectacles, there is considerable apathy among members of the party, while many, he says, will support Taft. His observations, however, seem to have been over a limited area. He met a barber, a lawyer, a planter and a negro banker who announced that they would support the republican ticket. To suppose that such straws show from which quarter the wind is to blow is as ridiculous as the assumptions of the tailors of Tooley street when they resolved that they were the people of England. The correspondent referred to seems to have obtained his impressions in a hotel lobby, where miscellaneous crowds gather. This class in no wise represents the people of Virginia.

THE ravages of the cholera in Russia and the sporadic cases that have been discovered in other European countries is naturally causing anxiety. Black frost is said to stay this horrible scourge, but it is predicted that the pestilence is likely to break out afresh next spring. Eugene Sue in the "Wandering Jew" represents the cholera as traveling at the rate of thirty miles a day, or about as far as a man can walk in twelve hours. It is possible for the terrible plague to head in this direction. In the thirties cholera visited Alexandria and many of our people succumbed to it. Shortly after the close of the civil war it made its appearance in certain southern states. In Memphis it raged for some time, and a number of Alexandrians who were in that city at the time died from the scourge. It is hoped the pale horse and its rider will leave Russia and soon pass out of view altogether.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S attack on Gov. Haskell, national democratic treasurer, was yesterday given the appearance of a boomerang, when the Oklahoman, replying, declared that his seeming protection of a Standard Oil subsidiary was due to a national charter granted the Prairie Oil and Gas Company by the president's own administration. Former Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock admitted granting the charter during the territorial period of Oklahoma's existence, but would say no more. Secretary Garfield, his successor, forced likewise to admit the grant, tried to mimimize the fact by declaring that the departmental regulations under which it was issued could interpose no interference with the right of Oklahoma to enforce its own laws after the State came into existence. Governor Haskell declares it did estop any action on his part.

THAT "Taft Democratic Club?" of Richmond, alleged to be "composed of 500 of the most prominent business men and bankers of that city," and which was to have held a meeting last night for the purpose of perfecting a permanent organization and electing officers, did not materialize. The apparent cause of the nonorganization of the club was the want of members! A Richmond paper is responsible for the statement that the "club" membership has reached two.

SO THE Prairie Oil Company got its rights in Oklahoma from the Secretary of the Interior in Mr. Roosevelt's cabinet! Governor Haskell did no more, according to the latest information on this subject, than to respect rights which had accrued under federal authority before statehood. On the whole, Governor Haskell's letter is less open to criticism on the score of bad manners than is the president's.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Sept. 25.

The attorney general does not feel qualified at this time to say whether or not it is the interest of the government to proceed against the Duponts in the powder trust litigation. Responding to an inquiry of this character, prompted by a Wilmington dispatch, Attorney General Bonaparte said today that he had no knowledge of a purpose to ultimately resort to criminal proceedings. "The action to dissolve the powder trust, however," he declared, has been put in charge of James S. Scarlett who had been appointed special counsel for the government. To him is left the decision as he may best secure the fullest results of the proceedings." Scarlett recently conferred with the attorney general here and at that time it was announced that the taking of testimony in the powder suit would be pushed vigorously. Advices from Delaware, that further action in the case had been postponed until October 7, may indicate an unexpected development.

At today's cabinet meeting, the first formal session since the summer vacation, and at which all members were present, except Secretary Root, the question of whether there was danger in having the battle fleet stop at Manila, on account of cholera was discussed. Secretary Wright declared that cholera was only infectious and that if care were exercised the disease would not spread. It is likely that no chance will be made in the itenerary of the battleship fleet. It was decided to have the Postoffice Department cancel the ten years' lease for postal quarters in Congressman Carter's building at Ardmore, Oklahoma. The lease was made several years ago. Carter was elected on the democratic ticket under the first election in the new state. So far as the department was aware there had been no violation of the law by Carter. A great part of the session, it is understood, was devoted to a discussion of the political situation, particularly insofar as it bore upon the Haskell-Standard Oil incident. Cabinet members, however, asked to be excused from discussing the matter at this time. It is understood that Mr. Bryan may be given the floor before the president makes any more public political utterances.

General Felix Agnus, of Baltimore, has informed the president that Maryland will give Taft a plurality of at least 25,000. The president told General Agnus that he was convinced Taft would carry as many, if not more, states than Roosevelt did in the last election.

Louis Willis, 27 years old, of 2251 12th street, attempted suicide in a cell at the Eighth precinct this morning by hanging himself. He used a belt for the purpose. He will recover.

The body of Lieut. Thomas E Selfridge will be buried in Arlington National Cemetery late this afternoon. Full military honors will be accorded the young officer who lost his life in the Wright aeroplane accident at Fort Myer last week, the casket being borne to the grave on a flag-draped caisson, escorted by the 13th cavalry mounted band, and followed by two troops from the same regiment. Rev. Herbert S. Smith, of St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, will read the burial service. The funeral was delayed until today to await the arrival of Lieutenant Selfridge's parents from San Francisco.

The conference of national bank examiners devoted today, the fifth day of their meeting here, to mutual discussion of the best methods of verifying the bank's copy of its reports of its condition and of its earnings and dividends; also the best methods of figuring the reserve of national banks in city, country and reserve city banks.

Acting Secretary of State Adee expressed surprise today at the report of the selection of a successor to Wu Ting Fang and said that there had been no official intimation whatever of a contemplated change in the head of the Chinese legation. He said that cablegrams received from Minister Rockhill at Pekin yesterday and today contained no mention of it whatever. Mr. Adee is also disinclined to believe the report emanating from Europe that Baron Rosen, for the past three years Russian ambassador to Washington also is to be withdrawn.

The Comptroller of the Currency late this afternoon issued a call for a report of the condition of national banks at the close of business on Wednesday, September 23rd.

President Roosevelt's political housecleaning has taken an unexpected turn. He has directed his attention to intolerable conditions in his own party and a swish of the broom today swept out of office T Coleman Dupont, the powder trust magnate, head of the speaker's bureau of the republican national committee. If Dupont's resignation is not in the hands of National Chairman Hitchcock it is on the way.

BRYAN AND TAFT.

"All I ask of the president is that he put into practice for a month and a half what he has talked about for seven years, and that is a square deal." Twice yesterday Mr. Bryan gave expression to this utterance, the first time in Dayton and again in Cincinnati last night before two of the largest audiences he has ever faced. It was not a square deal, he said, for the president to pick out one republican and nominate him over other republicans, and it was not a square deal for the president to use his office, which belonged to all the people, as a party asset. He added a new feature to his speeches during the campaign by comparing the personal record of himself and Mr. Taft. In an address he said: "In some respects Mr. Taf has been more fortunate than I. He has had an opportunity to hold office, and to show his conception of official duty. Yet who will say that he could have procured the republican nomination on his record? It was the powerful support of the president that made him the nominee of his party. I have not held office to any great extent. Four years in Congress covers my official experience." A dozen blocks from the home of Taft some 30,000 of Mr. Taft's neighbors fought and struggled to join in Cincinnati's welcome to Bryan.

Mr. Taft in winding up a day of speeches in Wisconsin, spoke at Milwaukee, yesterday, reiterating his pledge for a genuine and honest revision of the tariff.

MR. WATTERSON'S VIEWS.

In a scathing arraignment of the republican party Mr. Henry Watterson at Louisville, Ky., yesterday declared that the republicans could not make a scapegoat of Senator Joseph B. Foraker, of Ohio, for the reason that Speaker Joseph G. Cannon was a trust "attorney," and that Senator Nelson W. Aldrich was in the same boat.

He declared that Aldrich and Cannon had syndicated the American government and that Foraker is a mere victim of circumstances in being "caught with the goods on him." He says the real culprit is the republican party, and that Foraker "should not be slaughtered upon the altar of the party necessity."

Mr. Watterson says that in the famous Akron speech W. H. Taft held up George B. Cox, of Cincinnati, as a horrible example of machine rule, and that he held Foraker in reserve as his next victim. Yet, when forced into a corner he threw his arms around both Foraker and Cox, and now, when Foraker has come to grief, the nominee of the republican party repudiates both the senior senator from Ohio and the boss of Cincinnati, and becomes the side partner of Roosevelt and Hughes, whom the editor designates as "self-appointed understudies of the Almighty."

Mr. Watterson declares that while Taft is repudiating Foraker he should repudiate Aldrich and Cannon and Sherman, who are the real powers at Washington.

The Irish Vote.

Newcastle-On-Tyne, Sept. 25.—The recent action by the government in prohibiting the carrying of the host in the recent procession in London, in connection with the Eucharistic congress, resulted today in the defeat of the liberal candidate, Mr. Shortt, by the unionist nominee, G. Renwick, in the by-election held to select a successor to the late Thomas Cairns in the House of Commons. The Irish vote went almost solidly against the liberal candidate and a majority of 5,000 in 1906 was turned into a minority of 2,143. Another element in the unionists' favor was the tariff reform attitude of their candidate

Suicide's Request.

Alleged Anarchistic Plot.

Bayonne, France, Sept. 25.—Evidence of an anarchistic plot against President Roosevelt, on his forthcoming hunting trip to Africa, was made public today by the police authorities of a half dozen countries who are examining the Spanish anarchist Canatrava, in an effort to connect him with the suspected plot against the life of King Alfonso of Spain. It was disclosed that papers were found on two Italian anarchist arrested at Sessa, Switzerland, Wednesday, containing confirmation of Roosevelt's African trip. The authorities are convinced that Roosevelt is being considered as a fit subject for an anarchist attack.

The sweating process is expected to expose the plan of one of the terrorist uprisings Europe has ever seen.

They are trying to connect his movements with the mysterious departure of sixteen German anarchists from Berlin to Hungary and the meeting of 150 Italian anarchists Wednesday at Sessa. Two of this latter group were the ones who had the data concerning Roosevelt's trip.

They are now in jail at Geneva and a thorough effort is being made to obtain further evidence against them.

The papers found on these two contained plans of the autumnal trips of nearly all the European leaders, and police officials all over Europe suspect that a concerted uprising is well under way. The plot against Alfonso's life was timed for tomorrow, during his trip to Bearritz, the police say. There is every evidence that the anarchist invited a woman to join, the band that had been formed for the purpose of assassinating the Spanish king.

As a result of the disclosures made today, the guards in nearly every royal household in Europe have been increased

From Hot Springs to Toledo he will declare that Taft used the private car of one of the officials of the road, even though he paid his fare.

Foraker will declare that decent employment in a decent trust is not objectionable and will declare that it is to Taft's credit that he endorsed John H. Doyle to preside as a federal judge, even though Doyle was a Standard Oil lawyer of years standing. Foraker will take up the Brownsville affair and try to show that the action of Roosevelt and Taft has forced negroes to break away from the republican party.

Another Attack on Haskell.

New York, Sept. 25.—Under the caption "You want proof—read this"—W. R. Hearst's New York Journal today prints on its editorial page over the facsimile signature "C. N. Haskell," the following letter which purports to deal with the record of Governor Haskell of Oklahoma in Muskogee, that state. It reads:

"To the Businessmens Alliance.

"Whereas, It is apparent that there is in our city with the labor union people a movement which if it is not checked at once, it will inveigh our rights as citizens and tax payers to conduct our own business and,

Whereas, The price of labor is being constantly advanced to a prohibitive standard by these labor unions, which threatens the growth of our city, and,

Whereas, The laborers through their unions and backed by a central trades union are becoming intolerable, and,

Whereas, This status of affairs has recently been stimulated by a recent labor and socialists convention in our city;

Therefore be it resolved,

"That we the citizens of Muskogee, representing the best interest of the city do hereby bind ourselves together and pledges ourselves severally that we and each of us as citizens of Muskogee will do all in our power to discriminate any and all labor union men who may hold a union or trades assembly card not for the purpose of injuring these men personally but to check this contemptible fanaticism of trades unionism.

"Be it further Resolved,

"That we take steps at once to induce good sober and industrious mechanics to come to our city, union or non-union, who will pledge themselves not to join the unions or trades assembly of this city and that we pledge to such men a preferance at all times; also that we invite such men to join our alliance.

"C. N. HASKELL."

MR. HEARST AGAIN.

William R. Hearst, in his speech at the opening session of the state convention of the Independence League in Cooper Union, at New York, last night, flung some more sensational bombs into the "enemy's" camp. Mr. Hearst had a store of sensations in the form of letters from United States senators and others to representatives of the oil trust.

A new United States senator was named in the letters which Mr. Hearst pulled out from his grip—former Senator John L. McLaurin, of South Carolina, a democrat. Mr. Hearst read letters from Senator McLaurin to John D. Archbold and from the latter to Senator McLaurin, while the crowd of delegates and spectators hooted and yelled and screamed:

In one of the letters Senator McLaurin wrote to Mr. Archbold he spoke of being able to beat Senator Tillman, his colleague, "if properly and generously supported."

In the same collection was a letter of a later date from Mr. Archbold introducing the same senator to Frederick L. Eldridge, vice-president of the Knickerbocker Trust Company, "to discuss business questions of mutual interest."

Ex-Representative Joseph C. Sibley, of Pennsylvania, bobbed up again in last night's sheaf with several interesting letters. In one he told Mr. Archbold of a republican senator who wanted a loan of $1,000, and asked Mr. Archbold "do you want to make the investment?" Prior to the 1904 campaign, Mr. Sibley wrote Mr. Archbold another interesting letter in which he said it wan't at all sure who the republicans were going to nominate, that the situation was a very interesting one, and that he was on the inside, and that he thought he had really better come on to New York and talk it over.

A letter from Mr. Archbold to N. F. Clarke, of Pittsburg, under date of November 30, 1898, showed that Mr. Archbold was extremely anxious to have a friend named as democratic senator if a democrat had a chance to succeed Mr. Faulkner.

Continuing Mr. Hearst says:

"I have read letters to show the corruption in the republican party. I have read letters and court records and affidavits to show the equal, or even greater, corruption in the democratic party.

"The republicans have at least repudiated their Foraker, but the democrats cling tenaciously to their Bailey and their Haskell.

"Mr. Bryan sustains Haskell and writes Mr. Roosevelt proudly claiming to be responsible for Mr. Haskell.

"Mr. Kern rushes to the defense of Mr. Haskell, although it would be highly appropriate for somebody to rush to the defense of Mr. Kern. Mr. Mack says that when he said he had gotten $300,000 he was only joking. Mr. Mack, then, to be perfectly frank, admits that he lied, and we, to be perfectly frank, admit that we don't know whether he was lying then or is lying now.

"Mr. Bryan and Mr. Kern attack the republican party for not prosecuting the steel trust. Perhaps they hope that Mr. Roosevelt will whip the steel trust out of the republican party and into the democratic party, as he did the oil trust, and that Mr. Mack will get another $300,000."

The Independence party nominated Clarence A. Shearn, counsel for William R. Hearst, for governor and a full state ticket.

WHY NOT RACE?

Tonight the keel boat owners meet for a final settlement at the Elkton. These owners are agreed as to what they are going to do. The speed boat owners—Messrs. Emerson and Moore—are still quibbling about the amount of handicap Mr. Emerson has offered many inducements for a race. If the owners of the "Kindo" want an even race, it is a fact generally understood they want the race won before the start, as the Kindo has proved herself the faster boat. If they want to enter the race as disinterested people think they should enter it, allowing a proper handicap to the "Mae," then it is up to them. The speed boat Mae is not going to race the Kindo on even terms—that is settled. The owner of the Mae is willing to submit it to a committee and abide by their decision—will the other boat do as much? The race will occur at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The boats will meet at a point in the river opposite Fishtown and will start even from Hammond's wharf at the foot of Cameron street. The boats will go to Fort Foote and return.

WANTS MARRIAGE ANNULLED.

In accordance with a suit filed by Julian R. Holzberg, Justice Clabaugh, in Washington, yesterday cited Miss Jennie A. Holzberg to show cause next Thursday why she should not be enjoined from molesting her husband or damaging his property. The petition upon which the court's order is based asks the annulment of the marriage between the parties in the case, which took place in this city November 15, 1905. Holberg says his wife was known as Jennie E. Jones at the time of their marriage, but he asserts that he has since learned she had been married in Baltimore, October 14, 1902, to one Jacob Best, under the name of Jennie Anderson. Holzberg alleges the woman has never been divorced from Best, and bases his plea for separation on this ground. It is further alleged that Mrs. Holzberg has frequently threatened to do him bodily harm, and also to destroy certain of his personal property.

IDLE MECHANICS.

Alexandria today has more idle mechanics—men who want work—than at any time in the history of the city. Other cities and towns in Virginia are enjoying business activity, but this city has contractors who have not even had a house to construct in two or three years. Yet the cry is that under republican rule "everything is lovely and the goose hangs high." The fact is the goose, the chicken, the food so essential to a man's sustenance has been so high that he is unable to catch a glimpse at it, much less enjoy it. Times could be no worse no matter what happens, as the majority of mechanics are today living from hand to mouth.

ROBBED HIS BENEFACTOR.

Tim Madden, king of hoboes, met a fellow traveler, and knowing his condition, carried him to a lodging house in this city and paid for his bed. During the night they swapped stories about bygone days and this morning Tim awoke to find his watch and 90 cents gone. Having remembered that the fellow member of the hobo fraternity had told him that he was going south Madden hastened to the depot and found him and recovered his watch and money. Officer Knight assisted Madden in the recovery of his belongings.

ROBBED A CLOTHES LINE.

Mrs. Kate Power, of 307 north Washington street, this morning reported that her yard was entered last night and robbed of skirts, shirt waists, underwear, pillows, men shirts and other wearing apparel. No clue is given as to the robbers. It is said that the thief entered the back window with the intention of robbing the house, but was scarred off by the daughter of Mrs. Power who, was attending the entertainment of Dr. Bennett at the time.

COMPLAINT ABOUT MILK.

The milk dealers below this city have been complained to by the Washingtoh and Alexandria buyers about the short measure. They say they send the cans here with the usual quantity and it must be spilled in handling or stolen en route. An examination of one of the cans this morning disclosed the fact that a large frog was in it and had consumed almost a quart of milk.

DEATH OF MR. FEARSON.

Mr. John Fearson, an employee of the commissary department of the U. S. Government at Fort. Myer died at his home on Franklin street this morning, after an illness of two weeks. Mr. Fearson was well known around the river front having spent the major part of his life in service on the river. He was a quiet citizen, respected by all who knew him. He leaves a widow and two children.

JACKSON COUNCIL MEETS.

James W. Jackson Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., held its regular meeting last night and initiated two new members. This is the only council of this order in this city and it is in a flourishing condition and has a well filled treasury. The council will give a smoker next Thursday.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Russell Washington, colored, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct and with resisting an officer, was fined $10

AT CAMP AT QUANTICO.

The young business men who went down the river on the schooner Ella Hill for a pleasure trip have returned and are located at the club house at Quantico. Messrs. F. M. Hill, Alton Moore and John Riley were deputized to go and get the articles for dinner yesterday. Mr. Hill had the cabbage, Mr. Moore the meat and Mr. Riley the beets. On coming across an open field they were attacked by a cow and the dinner was lost, as the men had to run for their lives.

SHIRTS STOLEN.

Precinct Detective R. O Kleindenst, of No. 1 precinct, Washington, was in this city this morning looking for a man named Schneider who, he said, had just moved to this city and was conducting a second hand store on King street and who had bought a number of shirts from Charles Pollard, colored, who had stolen them from Mrs. Lottie Lanham, of M street southwest, Washington.

WANT TO ERECT FOUNTAIN.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union, alive to everything affecting the general welfare of man and beast, are now creating interest in a public water fountain, where a man, likewise a horse, can get a drink of water. The object is commendable and it is hoped will succeed.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

The Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club has rented the Appich building on the north side of King street, near St. Asaph, and arrangements were being made this morning to open the building during the day. All voters who desire to join the organization can leave their names at the headquarters of the club.

JEWISH NEW YEAR.

Services appropriate to the Jewish New Year will be held in the synagogue on north Washington street at 7:30 o'clock tonight. They will be conducted by Rabbi Samuel Schwartz, of Cincinnati.

TRIED X-RAYS.

Mr. Fred Mumford, the engineer who was shot in the head a night or two ago while on his engine, had the x-rays placed on the wound in Washington yesterday in order to locate the bullet but they failed to find a trace of it. Mr. Mumford is suffering very much from the wound.

HEAVY FOG.

Another heavy fog hung over this city and vicinity this morning. It was very thick on the river and interfered with navigation. The Baltimore steamer Anne Arundel was several hours late in reaching this port.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

On the complaint of a city merchant, Officer Rawlett today arrested M. M. Vance, an agent of Golden & Co., of Washington, on the charge of cruelty to animals. It is charged that Vance cruelly beat a horse attached to a wagon on King street this morning. He left $25 collateral for a hearing tomorrow.

AMUSEMENTS.

Everybody seems well pleased with the motion pictures furnished at the three places. The Alexandria Amusement Company, the Elite Picture Company and the Opera House managers seem to be determined to keep up good shows. That their efforts are appreciated is attested by the large number of people attending these houses each night.

Certain people like certain kinds of sausages, while others like other kinds, but a great majority of the people of Alexandria prefer Auth's sausages. There are more than three times as many Auth's sausages sold here now than any of the others. There certainly must be a reason for this. Just think it over. Sylvan Blondheim, The Auth Stand, City Market.

In the leading article of Everybody's Magazine for October, which has been received from its publishers in New York, Eugene V. Debs says "he knows what the matter is in America and what to do about it" "Pensioners of Peace" urges practical provision for workmen maimed in the industrial battle and in "Our Blind Citizens" astonishing facts are related. "The general art of training wild beasts," "Venice and its victims" and "The production of a play" are readable articles. In "Straight Talk" the subjects discussed are far reaching and the fiction and verse of this issue are exceptionally good.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 25.—There was an absence of significant trading during the first hour, Standard Oil orders not being in evidence, and because of this the speculative element on the floor sold stocks on advances made in the first few minutes, causing a moderate reaction. There was a quiet demand, however, and before the end of the hour a firm tone had developed.

We Lead—Others Follow

There are few, if any, of the people who do not want the best goods for the least money. Taking this statement for a fact and believing it to be true—a further truth presents itself, that of ability to pay high prices for the best articles. If the pocket will not stand the strain for liquors which range from $4 to $8 per gallon, a few lots can be mentioned from $2 to $2.60. We do no claim that this whisky equals the other, but we are confident of the fact that it is the best in the city for the money. Try a gallon and be convinced that we represent nothing we cannot execute.

BABOON BITES NEGRO.

Miller Medley, a negro, is at the Emergency Hospital, Washington, suffering from wounds inflicted by an East Indian baboon, which sprang upon him and buried its teeth into his left leg and thigh. The baboon, called "Johnnie," was owned by a negro hostler at a livery stable in the downtown district of that city, and for eight years has occupied a stall in the stable.

The animal jumped on Medley in the darkness of the stable and bit him ferociously. His associates finally, with ropes, pitchfork and club, forced the animal away from the negro. The physicians fear blood poisoning will set in. The baboon had previously attacked another man. Its owner says the baboon is only vicious after it has been drinking liquor fed it by stablemen.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an east bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to La Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death-like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whisky. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarroea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into La Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into La Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.
